Summary: This ones from Izzy's point of view. Please tell me what you think!

I don't always know the answer

> <meta name="Generator"> You think I am the smart one,

I don't always have the answer

You think I am the smart one,

Who always has things done,

You all look to me for the answer,

But the truth isâ€¦sometimes I don't have one.

I may usually be able to figure things out,

And to find a way around and about,

But sometimesâ€¦You have to understand,

That I just can't figure things out.

I feel you think I have no heart,

And would rather sit there, typing all day,

But, you seeâ€¦I would rather it a different way,

That you would listen to what I am about to say,

It's nice to be known as being smart,

But I would rather be known as having a heart,

As caring when something goes wrong,
But also when something goes right.
You see, I don't always have the answer.
